Overview

Leading Innovation is a leadership program that connects strategic choices with execution, people and results. Programs for managers who need to set direction, decide well and bring people with them. Choose 5 or 10 days, classroom or live online, English or Arabic; organisations can also run it in-house and adapt the examples to their own work.

What you will be able to do

- Set direction and priorities for Leading Innovation in your organisation.
- Build a personal leadership agenda for the next year.
- Make sound decisions with incomplete information.
- Align people, structure and culture with strategy.
- Lead change and handle resistance constructively.

Who should attend

Executives, senior managers, team leaders and high-potential employees. It is aimed at managers and executives who set direction and are accountable for results.

Key topics

- Strategic thinking and direction setting
- Leading teams and performance
- Communication and influence
